BUNGALOW

A young child with curly blonde hair, wearing a striped tank top, is leaning over a light-colored wooden table, playing a board game. An adult woman in a pink top and striped shorts is standing behind the child, assisting them. The table has a colorful board game, a blue cup, and a red cup on it. The setting is a glamping tent with a wooden frame and a canvas interior. A doorway on the left shows a bedroom with a bed and a nightstand. The text "GLAMPING MAR 2 PEOPLE" is overlaid in a blue box in the center of the image.

A mobile home with a striped awning and a wooden deck, surrounded by lush greenery and a large tree. The home has light-colored siding and a circular window. A large tree with dense green foliage is positioned behind the home, and a well-manicured hedge runs along the front. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

MOBIL-HOME
